

Air1 serves our local community and our home by bringing encouraging music and positive listening for the entire family.

If LPFM broadcaster were to provide other programming it would be a great loss.

We need Air1 to continue in our area and help this community to be uplifted.

Adults and teens all over benefit from listening to Air1 which in turn helps the community to know there is an alternative to negative programming. What a positive influence to pass on to each generation.

Thank You